

QCWA HOT LINE REPORT

Volume 4, No's 11 & 12

November, December 1981

BULLETIN:

David Talley, W2PF, notified QCWA HQ of the passing of John DiBlasi, W2FX, on Sunday, December 13, 1981.

John was one of the original founders of QCWA, its first President, holding that office from 1947 to 1964. He was QCWA Member Number 1. He had been hospitalized by a catastrophic stroke, in 1969.

QCWA NEWS, Winter, 1981, has gone to the mailers and will be winging its way to members before the end of the week.

THE BOARD of Directors, at its Cleveland meeting, took action which, at the members discretion, will permit the Board to be increased from 5 to 10 directors. The WINTER QCWA NEWS contains a ballot, with instructions, for voting on this important issue. Read it and when you have decided on how to vote, mark and return your ballot as quickly as possible.

THE QCWA MEMORIAL FUND received gifts of $249.00 during the month of November, 1981. Certificates of Appreciation have gone out to all contributing $10 or more.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the 1982 Convention was made...The Convention will be the joint work of the Tennessee Chapters and will be held in Nashville, TN, in September.

QCWA's 1982 QSO PARTY RULES ARE PRINTED IN THE WINTER NEWS. Watch for it, and plan on taking part.

An inventory of QCWA Property has been completed and transmitted to the Committee on Contracts.

A complete list of all donors to the QCWA MEMORIAL FUND will be printed in the SPRING, 1982 QCWA NEWS. A complete listing of gifts and financial standing of the Fund will appear.

Make certain your dues are paid, and your call, your address and other information is correct in QCWA files....we begin the 1982 Roster on February 15, 1982...update now!!!!!!!!!!

MERRY CHRISTMAS! HAPPY NEW YEAR! GOD BLESS YOU, EVERY ONE!
